

President Conrad Janke and President-Elect Don Richards present a $4000 check to Sheila Ryan and Ty Marshal of the Center for the Arts.

Ty thanked us for the contribution, and told us that he and Sheila greatly appreciated the relationship with Cortland Breakfast Rotary. Our funds have helped fund the Summer, Mural, and Musical Programs. The next project is The Little White Church; Ty will be looking for ideas on how the community can use the space.

We needed 12 volunteers for the Salvation Army Dollar Drop on December 2—and we got 12 volunteers! Thanks to everyone!

Kathie O'Mara reminded us that our Holiday Party will be a Social Hour on December 6 from 545-715pm, $20 per person.

Glenn Reisweber— for Valerie and her family, and for the volunteers to help the Center for the Arts;
Conrad Janke—for Valerie joining our Club;
Matt Banazek— for the inclusion of Valerie;
Mark Hahn—welcome Valerie;
Ty Marshal—the volunteers for the Center, and for Sheila Ryan getting up so early; Bob Martin—happy to have Valerie as his first Rotary sponsor; Jeremy Boylan—for the snow outside, seeing the Cortana
a jug in NYC, and for Valerie; Steve Cinquanti—welcome Valerie; Kathie O'Mara—great to have Valerie join us; Mark Roberts—Valerie as new member; Valerie Kaiser—thanks for being a member, and for surprising her brother for his birthday on a visit to him in Austin and Dallas. ,

A mom of a 5 year old and a 2 year old, Valerie is an active mother! As a Senior Traffic/TS Engineer at RS&H, she has been a Board member of the Institute of Transportation Engineers. In Austin, TX, she was on the Board of Temple Beth Shalom, and in Cortland has joined the League of Women Voters. She likes to give back to the community, and has provided STEM research to youth and girls. She likes to run, and is an avid crocheted and knitter, having joined the Syracuse Weavers Guild. Thank you for including Rotary in your busy life!

HAPPY DOLLARS

Led by the steady helmsmanship of Glenn Reisweber, fourteen Breakfast Rotarians ventured into the bowels of the Center for the Arts and helped clean and straighten the joint up!

Besides Glenn, the other volunteers were:

Matt Banazek.
Kurt Behrenfeld.
Jeremy Boylan.
Terry Cahill.
Mike Catalano.
Steve Cinquanti.
Patrick Clune.
Chuck Feiszli.
Conrad Janke.
Valerie Kaiser.
Bob Martin.
Mark Roberts.
