"Each member has a role"

Terry Cahill & Conrad Janke on club goals & committees

This week, Cortland Breakfast Rotary Club President Terry Cahill and Area 17 Representative Conrad Janke informed the club about its goals for the 2026-2027 term, as well as current committees and the roles they play.

Rotary provides twenty-six goals that can be tailored for each club, and asks that each club achieves at least thirteen. Conrad pointed out that not every club is even aware of these goals, and of the 104 clubs in CNY only one club achieved all 26 goals in 2025-6: The Cortland Breakfast Rotary Club! He also emphasized that every member plays a role in helping our club meet our own goals!

CBR's goals include:

- Membership
- Annual Fund Contributions
- Service Projects
- Social Activities
- District Conference Attendance (April)
- District Training Participation

President Terry Cahill went through the list of CBR's committees, spending brief time, as needed, allowing the chair of the committee to describe its function.

A complete list of the committees, their description, and list of members may be found on the club's website:

Happy Dollars

Karen DeWitt: Approved by Homer to be able to switch exchange student to their district; Doug Withey will be first host family, just awaiting final approvals.

Matt Banazek: Going to Germany and Austria with his mom and brother; last week saw Sandy Samson, it was great visiting with him.

Bob Martin: Center for the Arts is an amazing facility- hosting our meeting each week, and he attended a concert on Thursday. They'll also be hosting CNY Community Foundation grant event; went out to Ohio to see sister and brother-in-law- good to get together, but sad to see that their health has declined to the point of needing assisted living.

Chuck Feiszli: Trip to Saranac Lake, then off to Maine for his son's wedding.

Jeremy Boylan: Went with family on a trip to places that included Cleveland and Nashville; thank you to Don and Luanne for hosting the summer picnic.

Glenn Reisweber: Good to be back!

Pat Clune: Magic on Main this Friday; celebrated his 27th anniversary last Friday!

Conrad Janke: For all who helped with Meals of Hope & Sleep in Heavenly Peace.

Kim Cameron: Also enjoyed a trip to Saranac Lake; had a week with the grandchildren while their parents took a trip to Amsterdam- kept them busy and was exhausted by the end.
