SCOTT STEVE

WE CALL HIM “THE MAYOR”

It wasn't even two years ago that candidate Scott Steve was our Speaker, vying for the Mayorship of Cortland. In the last year and eight months as Mayor, Scott has faced many challenges.

Scott ran for Mayor in order to improve Cortland; he knew it would be a hard job, but knows that he is a hard worker. One of the challenges he immediately faced as Mayor was a heavy retirement from the different City departments. Another challenge which he is reminded of daily is the Main Street Project; he expected issues, but no one knew that the utilities on Main Street were not marked since 1900! Besides the work on Clinton Ave. and Main St., they will be starting work on Groton Ave. soon.

Two big issues Scott has taken on are those of homelessness and housing. He got all of the agencies dealing with the homeless in the same room, got a count of the homeless, their names, and what they needed. In trying to clean up neighborhoods, Scott has taken 40 derelict houses and cleaned them up. Housing is a need, and he is trying to implement more workforce housing and multi-use housing. We thank Scott for trying to make Cortland a better place, and know that he will continue to hammer out the problems that arise.,

Announcements

Past President Conrad Janke reminded us about the Toys for Tots Concert at the Center for the Arts on September 17, at 2pm. It is a free concert with a Goodwill Offering, and is the first time that four service clubs are banding together: the Cortland Breakfast Rotary, the Cortland Noon Rotary, the Cortland Kiwanis Club, and the Cortland Community Service Club. Please plan to attend!

On Saturday September 30 we are working with the Noon Rotary Club are hosting a chicken Barbeque at Bob's Barbeque on Rte 281. Preorders are available, and we will be asking for volunteers.

Happy Dollars

Ed Finkbeiner contributed for his great time at his camp and for our guests;

Karen Dewitt is grateful for the presence of our Exchange Student, Noah Bech;

Conrad Janke enjoyed a tribute dinner by Cornell University for Don Reed, water polo with the Dew Crew, and for Porhfest;

Mark Hahn successfully moved to Lansing;

Scott Steve Informed us that one of his daughters just had a baby, another daughter is engaged, and yet another daughter is back at college;

Jeremy Boylan also welcomed Noah.,
